TICKETS STILL AVAILABLE FOR DOWNTOWN HOLLAND'S UP ON THE ROOFTOPS EVENT

There are still a limited number of tickets available for Downtown Holland's highly anticipated Up On The Rooftops event on Friday, December 7. To celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of the event, organizers are please to announce that this year's tour of homes and businesses is the largest one to date. Tickets are just $20 each and can be purchased online at www.upontherooftops.com and at the Downtown Holland office on the corner of Ninth Street and River Avenue.

The $20 ticket price includes a self-guided tour of 17 private residences and businesses on the upper floors of the historic buildings of Downtown Holland from 6:00 pm – 9:00 pm. The ticket price also includes a reception in the lobby of the beautiful Fifth Third Bank on Eighth Street, where desserts and refreshments will be served. Ticket buyers can decide to attend the early reception before the tour from 6:30 p m – 7:30 pm or the late reception from 8:30 pm – 9:30 pm. The tour and reception are generously sponsored by Fifth Third Bank and GDK Construction Co.

“Up On The Rooftops has been a great opportunity for the community to see and experience some of the historic downtown buildings where people live and work,” said Chuck Geenen and Doug DeKock co-owners of GDK Construction. “GDK Construction is thankful for the opportunity to work and invest in our downtown and to be a sponsor of this event.”

This year's tour locations include the offices of Collective Idea above Butch's and Worksighted above Talbot's, along with Carolyn Stich Studio, Michigan T-Shirt Co., Moonlight Studios and On Pins & Needles, all businesses above Model Drug Store. Other businesses include Dr. Bade's Office, Harbor Health, Impact Health and Lakeshore Pilates above Claremont Court. The residences on the tour include apartments in The Warm Friend, above Cotton Bay and above the Windmill Restaurant. Condos in Centennial Park Place and above Kilwin's are also included.

Tickets are on sale at www.upontherooftops.com or at the Downtown Holland office at 44 West Ninth Street (corner of Ninth Street and River Avenue) during normal business hours. No phone or e-mail orders will be accepted. Tickets purchased online will be mailed out. Up On The Rooftops is proudly sponsored by Fifth Third Bank and GDK Construction Co. with special thanks to Alpenrose Restaurant and Lemonjello's

Coffee. Please e-mail info@upontherooftops.com or call 616.796.1210 with questions.
